1971 'GOLDEN BATCH' of SAC sponsors Advanced Instrumentation Center to its Alma Mater

The members of the '1971 GOLDEN BATCH' of St Aloysius College have donated Advanced Instrumentation Center consisting of machines and equipment to aid Research studies to its alma mater by raising a sum of one crore and seventy lakh rupees as a token of gratitude. This is a unique gesture witnessed for the first time in the history of the College. This Advanced Instrumentation Center has come at the right time when St Aloysius College is all set to become a Deemed to be University in the near future.

The alumni of the College are celebrating their Golden Jubilee Reunion and graduation by presenting such a gift to their Alma mater.

The Golden Batch students were escorted by the NCC cadets of Army, Air Wing and Navy Wing after which a unique Golden Batch Flag was hoisted by Walter D'Souza, the Chairman of the Golden Batch Reunion.

Fr Melwin Joseph Pinto SJ, the Rector of St Aloysius Institutions; Rev. Dr Praveen Martis SJ, Principal, St Aloysius College (Autonomous); Dr Alwyn D'Sa, Registrar and Controller of Examinations; Walter DSouza, Chairman of the project; Prof Edmund Frank, Secretary and Convenor; M.V. Nair, the Keynote Speaker; Dr Cletus D'Souza, Project Director; C.P. Dinesh; Joseph D'Mello, Treasurer; Fr Xavier Gomes and Ronald Fernandes, Coordinators of the programme were on the dais.

The programme began with a solemn commendation ceremony which is a replica of the Convocation ceremony for graduating students. Each one from the 1971 golden batch was given a stole and memento by the college management and conferred with a commendation certificate acknowledging their role as ambassadors of their Alma mater and for fulfilling their roles in accordance with the college motto. All these batchmates of 1971 batch now in their 70s were happy to be attired in the Convocation gowns and caps since they never had the same privilege back when they graduated.

The programme began with a welcome dance by Ms Sanvita and team while Mr Reuben Machado and team invoked God's blessings with a beautiful welcome song. Mr Walter D'Souza delivered the welcome address, where he thanked his batchmates for their generosity in supporting their Alma mater.

Walter further said, "It's nice to note that 50 years after we graduated from this prestigious institution, we have all joined to give back to our Alma mater. Today, 10 January 2022 will go down memory lane as a remarkable day in the history of St Aloysius College where batchmates of the College have made a unique contribution to the college. Even though 268 passed out from the 1971 batch, we were able to track 157 of our batchmates, while 50 plus had passed away. We got support from European countries, the USA, GCC, India and other places, and nearly 40 of our batch-mates from abroad and India who had already booked their tickets to join the occasion by flight/train had to cancel them due to the pandemic restrictions. The alumni of the Golden Batch are proud and beaming with pride that we gave back something to our Alma mater, who made us what we are now".

Rev. Fr Melwin Pinto SJ, released the souvenir. Following this, Mr Walter D'Souza, the chairman handed over the cheque for one crore seventy one lakh rupees to the Rector, Rev. Fr Melwyn Pinto SJ.

M V Nair, who is the non-executive chairman of the trans union CIBIL, a proud alumnus and one of the recipients distinguished eminent Aloysian Alumni Award-ees 2022 delivered the keynote address and said, "I want to share two topics: 1) Aloysian contribution to the Community, and 2) Aloysius as My Dream. In my life, NCC had played an important role, and what I am today is because of my involvement in NCC at St Aloysius College, which made me reach great heights. I learned how to make friends and influence people. Remember that a smile or pat on the back makes a difference. Networking is also important in life. When I was admitted to a hospital I learnt that in giving you also receive. Since then I made a strong decision that I should make a contribution to my Alma mater from a part of my income, and I continue to do so. I chose banking because a banker can make a big contribution".

Addressing the gathering, Rev. Dr. Praveen Martis SJ said, "Every reunion is that time of the year to reunite, reminisce, celebrate and a nostalgic trip down memory lane. But this reunion is going to be unforgettable as the Golden Batch of 1971 has made it special with several projects for its Alma mater as it is on the threshold of becoming a university and strides with gusto into its 143rd year of its glorious existence. They have not only planned a celebration of coming together but, more importantly, they have come up with a generous thought of securing and ensuring excellence in Research and innovation by putting in place one of the best Advanced Instrumentation Centres in their beloved Alma mater. On this auspicious occasion, I would like to thank this Golden Batch for their generous gift".

Rector Fr Melwin Pinto SJ in his presidential address said, "1971 batch is an inspiration for other alumni to follow and give back to their Alma mater. If this golden batch could do it, why not the other alumni? With support and encouragement from our alumni, we can take our institution to greater heights and earn name and fame in the country and abroad.

During the programme, the Golden Batch felicitated six of their professors/lecturers who had taught them during their study at St Aloysius. They are: Prof. K R Upadhyaya, Dept of Mathematics from 1961-1996; Prof. K V Rao, Dept of Physics from 1967-2003; Prof. P Shantharam, Dept of Chemistry from 1970-2003; Prof. J W F Saldanha, Dept of Physics from 1968- 2005; Prof. Francis Crasta, Dept of Physics from 1968-2005; Prof. Richard Pinto, Dept of Zoology from 1964-1998; and Prof. Lambert Rodrigues, Dept of Chemistry from 1968-1969.

To mark and relive this tradition the batch of 1971 handed over their flag to their next batch. This was done by Mr Walter D'Souza, the chairman of the 1971 golden batch to Mr Archibald Menezes, the chairman of batch-1972.

The programme was meticulously compered by Ms Alita D'sa, a faculty in the Dept of English, St Aloysius College. Prof. Edmund Frank, the Secretary, delivered the vote of thanks.

and citation plaque were handed to the six achievers (one of whom participated in the programme online). Lt. Gen. Ravi Eipe, who joined the programme digitally, was honoured by Rev. Fr Melwin J Pinto SJ, Rector and Patron of SACAA. He thanked Lt Gen. Ravi and presented him with the award digitally. "Generations of students who have passed through the portals of this great institution have immensely contributed to all spheres of life, thus facilitation a social, economic, and spiritual transformation at the national as well as global level," said Rev. Dr Praveen Martis SJ in his Felicitation address.

Mr. C. G. Pinto, Mr. Jayaram Bhat, Mrs. Marjorie Texeira, and CA Chandramohan K.Y. were on the award selection committee. Mr. Archibald Menezes congratulated and praised the jury members for their work. Out of the four, Mr C. G. Pinto was present at the programme, he was presented with a memento and a bouquet.

Mr M. V. Nair, Non-Executive Chairman Trans Union CIBIL who gave the Conclave address, talked about the importance of networking. He added that NCC has played a significant part in his life, assisting him in expanding his network and increasing his self-confidence. He also brought up Aloysius from his dream. "We should constantly aim to make a good difference in people's lives," he remarked. It's critical that you remember to make a good difference in people's lives." He also reminisced about his fond recollections of his time at the college.

"It's crucial to remember that half the war may be fought in the head if you're facing a challenge." Even if you are ill, you must maintain a pleasant attitude. Mr Nair said, "A mental attitude may bring a lot of change in your life." Mr. J. S. Stephen Pinto, President of SACAA, gave the vote of thanks. He thanked all of the guests on the dais for attending, as well as the NCC students, Student Council, SACAA Executive Committee members, college staff, and the Organising Committee for their support. Ms Reena Monteiro, Head of the English Dept., St Aloysius PU College compered the programme. The ceremony ended with the National anthem, followed by a sumptuous meal.

“Re-Imagining Internationalization” held on 21 January 2022.

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), St Aloysius College (Autonomous) Mangaluru in collaboration with AIACHE, organised a 2-day Conference on the theme:

“Re-Imagining Internationalization” which was divided into three segments: Management Development Program (MDP), Faculty development Program (FDP) and Leadership development Program (LDP)

The objective of this conference was to get familiarized with the aims and vision of AIACHE and devise means to come together to collaborate and network for facing the challenges of Christian higher education in the present context, especially with the implementation of NEP-2020.

AIACHE, The All India Association for Christian Education is a professional Association of more than 500 Christian higher education institutions in India. The vision of AIACHE is to give Christian institutions a recognizable character and set high ideals of life and service which will inspire them continuously to strive to meet emerging needs and challenges.

The Principal of St Aloysius College Autonomous, Rev. Dr. Praveen Martis SJ has been elected as the President of the AIACHE, Karnataka Region in the General Body Meeting held in Kanyakumari from 27-29 December, 2021 and as one of the AIACHE Executive Board members (Karnataka Region) in the recently held 140th Meeting of the AIACHE Executive Board.

This Conference “Re-Imagining Internationalization” was a unique programme to explore common grounds for progressive educationists to discuss the future of NEP, to develop effective teacher training mod-to strategize and build model plan to upskill and increase employability and provide internationalization in education and placements.

The conference was inaugurated on January 21, 2022 at 10.30 am in Sanidhya. The following were the dignitaries for the programme: Chief guest Ms Sameera Fernandes, Director of Ecosol Global, President Rev. Dr. Praveen Martis SJ, Vice President of AIACHE (Karnataka region) & Vice Principal of School of social work, Roshni Nilaya – Sr Dr. Jenis Mary, Secretary of AIACHE - Mr Roshan Raj, General Secretary of AIACHE-Rev. Webinar on Youth and Athmanirbhar Bharath

A Webinar on Youth and Athmanirbhar Bharath was held on Monday, January 24, 2022 at 2:30PM on Zoom platform which was organised by the Department of Commerce of St Aloysius College Autonomous, Mangalore. Mr. Manoj Louis, Assistant Professor of Government first grade college, Kavor and General Secretary of Mangalore University Commerce Teachers Association, was the resource person. All the second and third year students and a few first year students from St Aloysius College participated in this webinar along with delegates from various states. There were around 400 delegates who took part. Ms Helma Rodrigues was the Convener of this programme. The Principal Rev. Dr. Praveen Martis SJ, the Director of Arrupe Block Dr. Denis Fernandes, the Dean of Commerce Department Dr. Manuel Tauro, the Head of the Department Dr. Shobha and Dr. Zeena were present in this webinar.

The Principal Rev. Dr. Praveen Martis SJ addressed the gathering and gave his words of wisdom and congratulated the department of commerce in making the students of St Aloysius college self reliant.

The Dean of Department of Commerce, Dr Manuel Tauro welcomed and introduced the resource person Mr Manoj Louis- a young and eminent resource person who is full of energy and a great motivator of young and old alike. He is very familiar among student and teacher circles not only in this region but the state and national level as well. His genuine concern for students and passion for teaching profession is quite evident in his books, conferences and by being a trainer in various branches in south India. Mr Louis says that being a part of St Aloysius has really rubbed onto him.

It was an interactive session where almost every student participated in answering the queries asked by sir. Mr. Louis said Being ATHMANIRBHAR BHRAT (IYA) includes these main concepts - self reliance, self dependence, being independent, being a decision maker and most important of all is writing your own destiny and becoming the author of your own life. He also stressed on a sentence quoted by Cameron Diaz saying, "I want my life to be manageable by me" where we understand to follow a routine and do something remarkable in our lives. Mr Louis inspired all the students by quoting "Everyday begins with conditions and ends with experience".

Towards the end of the interacting session, Mr Manoj Louis responded to all the queries raised by the respondents. Ms Helma Rodrigues, Convener of this webinar and faculty of Commerce Department proposed the vote of thanks.

When Social Media Meets An Entrepreneur

The Department of Business Administration in collaboration with the Entrepreneurship Cell hosted a webinar titled - 'When Social Media Meets an Entrepreneur' by Harris Aboobakar. The webinar was hosted on 26th May 2021 at 3.00 pm through zoom online platform as well as live YouTube streaming was done.

The Convener for the webinar was Ms Binni Chan, faculty- Department of Business Administration.

The webinar began with General welcome and a set of instructions for the participants, and from there onwards, the formal program began with the prayer and the session was moderated by Ms Binni Chan, followed by welcome address by Ms Arati Shanbhag- Dean, Department of Business Administration. We also had our principal Rev Fr Dr Praveen Martis SJ who addressed the gathering, which was followed by the introduction of the guest speaker by Ms Claret Pereira, HOD- Department of Business Administration.

The webinar benefitted 1000 and plus participants. The participants were lively and interacted with the speaker. The webinar went on well for 1.5 hours and after the session we had question and answer segment where the speaker received lots of questions and he successfully clarified all the doubts and answered few queries too. But due to time constraint, he could not take up all the questions from the participants, so he shared his email id with them.

The webinar ended with the Vote of thanks by Ms Mamma- Dean, Consultancy and Entrepreneurship cell followed by sharing the feedback link by the technical team - Mr Ananth Rohith Bhat (Zoom chat) and Mr Royal (YouTube streaming).

E- Certificates were given to all the participants.

Dept. of MBA - Students take up campus cleaning drive

Campus cleaning drive as part of Eco Club activities was held at AIMIT on January 31. Director Rev. Dr. Melwyn Pinto SJ inaugurated the activity. He said: "We must all conduct eco club activities every month. AIMIT has planted around 700 plants in the college campus and we have added 650 KW of solar power this year. Such green initiatives must increase in our campus."

He encouraged the students to volunteer and participate in the activities. A certificate would be given to those students who actively volunteer and participate, he said. He referred to Amai Mahalinga Naik who was awarded the Padmashri award this year. "Amai Mahalinga Naik through his immense effort like 'Trivikrama' turned a piece of barren land into flourishing agricultural land by digging tunnels for water. To lead a prosperous life, he turned his barren land into a good agricultural land. Such eco warriors must be our inspiration," he said.

Later students went in groups to clean the campus. Enthusiasm and joy were exuded by them as they went about cleaning the surroundings.

Anusha Mary, a student of MBA shared her thoughts and experience of the eco club. "The cleaning programme was very interesting. We got a chance to clean the college campus. We removed plastic waste and other waste from the campus. We look forward to come up with more activities in the coming days," she said.

Ashwini, another student of MBA said, "The cleaning programme held at AIMIT made us feel encouraged, energetic and responsible towards keeping our campus neat and tidy."

Students collected over 10 bags of plastic and such other waste from the campus.

Farewell for IT Students at AIMIT

With the academic year coming to an end for the IT department, AIMIT organised a farewell function "Sayonara" for the final year IT students (MCA, MSc ST, MSc BDA) on January 13, 2022. The students will go for their industry internship programme in the fourth semester and will be back only for their project viva later in the semester.

Dr. Hemalatha N, Dean (Academics), IT department, in her speech wished the students good luck for their future. Thereafter a few students came forward to share their experience at AIMIT. All of them reminisced the time they spent and the fun they had along with the rigour of the academics.

Director Rev. Dr. Melwyn Pinto SJ in his address motivated the students and wished them good luck for their future endeavours. "It is important to unburden our baggage as we tread along in life. We must enjoy each moment of our life and hence must make our journey itself as the destination," he said.

The programme was concluded with the candle lighting ceremony. Each student came forward to light a candle as a symbol of carrying on the spark they receive at AIMIT.

The main objective of the webinar was to familiarise the participants with the development of vaccines, challenges associated with vaccine development, and the future prospects of vaccine research.

Dr. Aparna's talk primarily focused on DNA vaccines in the aquaculture field, as a cost-effective and efficient technique of managing viral infections that have a significant impact on productivity. She and her team is particularly interested in the presence of the RNA interference (RNAi) pathway in shrimp, which offers a promising new immunisation strategy. Protection against viral infections has been demonstrated using the design, manufacture, and considerations for plasmid DNA vaccines that express short or long double-stranded RNA in vivo. She highlighted the use of stable and cost-effective DNA vaccines for RNA interference to silence genes of the White Spot Syndrome Virus (WSSV) in Penaeus monodon. Silencing constructs, according to her research, can be an effective preventive technique in commercial shrimp hatcheries for protecting high-value brooders and preventing

Dr. Mahesh Prasad discussed the developing COVID-19 pandemic and the need for the creation of safe, effective, and fast-acting vaccinations to stop SARS-CoV-2 from spreading uncontrollably. He discussed the efficiency of live-attenuated yellow fever 17D (YF17D) vaccines as a vector for expressing the SARS-CoV-2 Spike antigen in its prefusion form. In mice and hamsters, the vaccine candidate YF-S0 elicits large levels of SARS-CoV-2 neutralizing antibodies and a favorable Th1 cell-mediated immunological response. He wrapped off the presentation by highlighting YF-S0 as a promising SARS-CoV-2 vaccine candidate.

Benefit in terms of learning/Skill/Knowledge obtained: More than 125 entries were received from various colleges all over India, mainly from students, research scholars and faculty. The feedback received from the participants was quite optimistic and motivating.

Aloysius crèche lifts huge burden from shoulders of teaching staff

MANGALURU, DHNS: With a sprawling crèche becoming a reality, the staff of a primary school, high school, St Aloysius Gonzaga School, PU college and degree college, managed by St Aloysius Institutions, are sighing in relief.

The child-friendly crèche, spread over an area of 1,500 sqft, has walls decked with hand paintings of Chhota Bheem, his friends and animals like Elephant on.

The paintings were designed and conceptualised by artist John Chandran. He along with his team of artists Bhavan, Abhishek, Sujith, Dakshith, Vikyath and Kaushik took nearly two weeks to paint the walls with child-safe paints.

The project, backed by Director of Applied Biology Lab Fr (Dr) Leo D'Souza, was implemented by St Aloysius Institutions Rector Fr Melwin Pinto.

The child-friendly Aloysius crèche was inaugurated by St Aloysius college Dean (Arts) Dr Rose Veera D'Souza and Principal Fr (Dr) Praveen Martis in Mangaluru.

Children between the age of six months and three years will be taken care of by the well-experienced staff, including a qualified nurse.

Aloysian Crèche, located in the centre of the campus, was inaugurated by St Aloysius College Dean (Arts) Dr Rose Veera D'Souza here recently. St Aloysius College Principal Fr (Dr) Praveen Martis and other staff members were also present.

Aloysius College alumni raise Rs 1.71 crore for alma mater

MANGALURU, DHNS: Alumni of St Aloysius College (1971 batch) on completion of 50 years of their graduation, celebrated their Golden Jubilee graduation with a grand 'Golden Reunion'.

In the 142-year-history of St Aloysius College, this is the first time that the students from all the streams had joined together on completion of 50 years, after graduation.

On the occasion of their 'Golden Reunion', students of the 1971 batch of St Aloysius College (SAC), accomplished something unique by raising a sum of Rs 1.71 crore.

Besides the money, they also presented an Advanced Instrumentation Centre (AIC), consisting of machines and equipment to aid research studies for their alma mater.

This AIC will be of immense help to both the staff and students who focus on research activities, said lecturers.

Prior to the formal function, the 1971 batch students were escorted to the LCRI auditorium by NCC cadets of the Army, Air Wing and Navy. Later, the unique Golden Batch Flag was hoisted by Walter D'Souza, the chairman of the Golden Reunion project.

M V Nair, who is the non-executive chairman of TransUnion CIBIL, and a proud alumna of the college, delivered the
